11. New Business

- i. CleanFoundation Engagement Session

CAO Millett-Campbell advised that Genevieve Beaulac is the new climate lead for Clean Foundation. They added that there have been some dates arranged for engagement sessions in the Town of Annapolis Royal, Bear River Village and Town of Middleton. Geraldine Kenny asked if this is a presentation, and CAO Millett-Campbell responded that this is a drop-in for residents to have conversations with CleanFoundation. Gillian Kerr advised that they will be attending the Middleton engagement session.

ii. Reappointments

CAO Millett-Campbell advised that currently the only reappointment is for Gillian Kerr, the question was asked if they will be continuing with their reappointment from January 1, 2026. Gillian Kerr responded that they are away half the year, and asked if this would be an issue as they would need to join via Zoom, and after further discussion it was agreed for them to continue with the reappointment. It was also noted that Vice Chair Lachlan Macdonald and Myriah Robertson will not be continuing with their appointment in the new year. Gillian Kerr asked if there was a requirement for someone to join this committee, and Chair Bernard responded that if they have any names to send this information to CAO Millett-Campbell. CAO Millett-Campbell added that anyone can attend a meeting to see what it is like.

12. Unfinished Business

i. Volunteer Clean-up - Update

Geraldine Kenny and Deputy Mayor Skinner-Robertson attended the fall clean-up, and due to the rainy weather, they were out there for approximately an hour.
